

JESS VAIRA

JESS VAIRA is a singer, songwriter and seamstress who is impassioned by community and sustainability. Groovy, jazzy, soul (with harmonies galore and an unconventional take on the loop pedal thrown in for good measure.

Jess has shared the stage alongside such acts as the Sam Roberts Band and Sweatshop Union at festivals and stages across Canada, including as far north as The Edge of The World Festival in Haida Gwaii. Several of her songs have been featured in Film, Theatre and Television including the series Cedar Cove on the Hallmark Network.

2016 solo debut LP "In A Line".

2008 "Perspectives" True Fold. A collaboration with My Electronic Friends (East Van Digital).

2002 "Submissions" on the collaborative album by Bedroom Studios.

More than just a voice her song writing and playing style have also made her a favourite collaborator. Jess contributed vocals to several Bobs & Lolo albums which have received 5 Juno Nominations (2010, 2012, 2015-17), and a Western Canadian Music Award (2009). She has also worked with the likes of Randy Ponzio (Shore 104 finalist), Alex Maher / DNA6 (west coast hip hop) David Morin (Soul R&B Loop Artist), Adam Balie (Folk/Reggae), and Barnaby Jones (Rock).
